Healthcare Innovation Delivers More Jobs, Better Returns & Improved Health for MN, Hosted at TreeHouse Health Space

MINNEAPOLIS (Sept. 21, 2016) – TreeHouse Health and Medical Alley Association hosted Healthcare Innovation Delivers More Jobs, Better Returns & Improved Health for MN last week at the TreeHouse Health space in Loring Park. This year, proceeds were raised to benefit CaringBridge, the first healthcare social network.

The afternoon was complete with two panels, consisting of speakers from Mayo Clinic, the Destination Medical Center, Lemhi Ventures, Triple Tree Capital Partners and TreeHouse Health. Presentations from emerging healthcare companies capped each end of the event. To conclude, a reception was held in the notable Loring Corner's alley. The goal was to bring together institutional investors, start-up executives, and executives from health plans and providers representing major healthcare organizations in the community.

Event panelists included:

- Jeff Bolton, CAO, Mayo Clinic
- Clark Otley, M.D., Medical Director, Mayo Clinic Ventures
- Lisa Clarke, Executive Director, Destination Medical Center
- Jodi Hubler, Managing Director, Lemhi Ventures
- Conor Green, Principal, Tree Tree Capital Partners
- John Blank, Partner, TreeHouse Health

Presenting companies included:

- Carrot Health
- Livio Health
- POPS! Diabetes Care
- Reemo
- Sansoro Health

Sponsors of the event included:

- The City of Plymouth
- The University of St. Thomas

The event was highly successful with over 150 attendees, many new connections made, and donations for CaringBridge totaling $2,174.
